The Prodigal God (Tim Keller)

Sundays, 9am, Student Center (February 21 – March 21, 2010)

Cost: $13 (books available for purchase in the fellowship hall)

Open to adults & high school students

Description

“Everything you’ve ever heard, and everything you’ve ever been taught, about how to approach God—is wrong.”

So says Tim Keller (author of The Reason for God and Counterfeit Gods) as he unpacks the brilliance and relevance of the Parable of the Prodigal Son for today. This down-to-earth and straight-forward book will encourage those who have grown weary of the hypocrisy of Christians, give hope to those who feel like they don’t belong in God’s family, and challenge those who are deeply committed to their faith.

LENTEN SPIRITUAL FORMATION CLASS

The Hole in Our Gospel (Richard Stearns)

Sundays, 9am, Rose Room (February 21 – March 21, 2010)

Cost: $16 (books available for purchase in the fellowship hall)

Open to adults & high school students

Description

It's 1998 and Richard Stearns' heart is breaking as he sits in a mud hut and listens to the story of an orphaned child in Rakai, Uganda. His journey to this place took more than a long flight from the United States to Africa. It took answering God's call on his life, a call that hurtled him out of his presidential corner office at Lenox-America's finest tableware company-to this humble corner of Uganda.

This is a story of how a corporate CEO faced his own struggle to obey God whatever the cost, and his passionate call for Christians to change the world by actively living out their faith. Using his own journey as an example, Stearns explores the hole that exists in our understanding of the Gospel.

Two thousand years ago, twelve people changed the world. Stearns believes it can happen again. —from the Publisher
